

DWU needs YOU!

Take Action for the Domestic Workers Bill of Rights

ALBANY DAY 2.10.09

Join DWU members, students, unions and clergy to demand respect, recognition and labor rights for domestic workers!

Even though they may employ domestic workers themselves, most lawmakers know nothing about domestic work. This is our chance to educate them on why domestic work is valuable and why nannies, elder caregivers, and housekeepers deserve respect, recognition, and protections.

Raise your voice and make your story heard!

Albany Day Agenda:

- ✍ Meet legislators and educate them on the conditions for domestic workers.
- ✍ Rally for justice at the New York State capitol.
- ✍ Demand respect and recognition for the work that makes all other work possible!

The Details:

- ✓ Tuesday, February 10, 6:30 am – 7 pm
- ✓ Bus pick-up north side of Union Square Park in front of Barnes & Noble @ 6:30 am. Drop-off same location by 7 pm.
- ✓ It's FREE! Meals included

Never talked to legislators? No problem.

Come to a DWU Albany Day Training

Sunday, February 1
2:00 – 4:00 pm
Room 604

Wednesday, February 4
7:00 – 9:00 pm*
Room 332

*Dinner provided

At NYU School of Law
245 Sullivan Street
South of Washington Sq Park
Take the ACE or BDFV to W. 4th Street,
RW to 8th Street, or the
6 to Broadway/Lafayette